PRODUCTION TEAM LEAD (Human*)

Annual minimum salary according to collective agreement. The actual salary is above the CA & depends on professional qualification & experience.

Your tasks:

- You support the Operations team with strategic resource planning and implement it together with your team.
- In doing so, you coordinate and plan the work of one of our production teams (approx. 5 - 10 team members).
- As part of your responsibility for the production processes, you will ensure safety, quality, adherence to deadlines and costs in your area in order to guarantee a smooth production process.
- If needed, you will support your team in production and also lend a hand yourself.
- As the coach of your team, you are the first point of contact for your team members and support them in their professional and personal development.

Requirements:

- You have completed an education in the field of mechanics, electrical engineering or mechatronics.
- You already have several years of practical experience in the manufacture of devices or the assembly of modules and have preferably already led a production team.
- Designing and living process flows is fun for you and you enjoy taking on process responsibility.
- As a practitioner and achiever, you have a talent for organization and a hands-on mentality.
- Ensuring the high quality of our products satisfies you.
- You are able to lead team members situationally and individually and you enjoy using your social skills accordingly so that your team can work together very well.

We offer you a modern working environment in a motivated, dynamic team. Further training and sharing knowledge are values on which our company is built. High voltage is guaranteed with us!
